One of the elite scholars in Baghdad's prestigious House of Wisdom, al-Khwarizmi is best remembered for his famous work Al-Jabr wa al-Muqabala, the text that defined the branch of mathematics known as algebra. He was also an accomplished astronomer and geographer. This fascinating biography describes in vivid detail the Islamic world's Golden Age, a period during the Middle Ages when learning and scientific advancement were revered and honored.

Readers will learn what is known of al-Khwarizmi's life, as well as the pertinent history of both the Arab world and the fields of science in which al-Khwarizmi excelled.

The Importance of the Prohibition of Riba in Islam Constantinople In
The Qur'an
In consequence of a mysterious decision taken by Mustafa Kamal's secular Republic of Turkey to not only change the city's name, but to also take steps that eventually ensured that the name, Constantinople, would no longer be used, this writer had to retrieve the name "Constantinople" from the archives of history in order for this book to be written. Why did the secular Turkish leader change the name of the city? Why did the name

"Constantinople" have to suffer that mysterious fate? This book brings clarity to that subject. This writer is convinced that the mysterious disappearance of the name "Constantinople"
from the modern-day vocabulary and discourse is directly linked to the status and role of the city in both Islamic and Christian eschatology. Jerusalem in the Qur'an
An Islamic View of the Destiny of Jerusalem
Jerusalem in the Qur'an made its debut at a crucial time when the morale of the Muslims was not only at its lowest... but is continually sinking... The blatant incessant Israeli incursions in the Holy Land go unabated, and Muslims are echoing the very words that their fellow brethren called out unto their Lord when they were being persecuted at the hands of the kuffar of Makkah: "When will the help of Allah come?" Shaikh Imran's insight into the events that are unfolding in the world today is a source of inspiration for Muslims for he convincingly argues from his scholarly interpretations of the Divine Writ (i.e., the Holy Qur'an) and the Ahadith of the Prophet Muhammad (sallallahu 'alaihi wa sallam) that the help of Allah (subhanahu wa ta'alah) is at hand, that the Holy Land will be liberated, and that Islam will re-emerge as the 'Ruling State' in the world. The reader will be enthralled by the author's grasp on world politics. Jerusalem in the Qur'an comes as a ray of sunshine for Muslims and is an eye-opener for the so-called 'People of the Book'. Though Jerusalem in the Qur'an is a meticulously written thesis combining religious and historical documents with recent political events and penetrating interpretations from the Qur'an and Hadith, it runs like a story. Once you begin reading it, it is hard to stop ... It is a reference that one needs to keep and re-read whenever the subject is to be researched. The book gives a detailed beautifully written exposition of these episodes with brilliant interpretations from the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah. No one would fail to appreciate his penetrative thought and his spiritual depth. Islam and Buddhism in the Modern World The Qur'an, Dajjal, and the Jasad This book is devoted to a study of the Jasad, whom the Prophet-King Solomon ('alayhisalam) saw sitting on his throne, and the first problem we encounter in this study is that neither the Qur'an nor the Prophet Muhammad's (sallallahu 'alayhi wasallam) Hadith explain who this Jasad truly is. This book has, therefore, been written with the specific purpose of inviting a scholarly response to this subject of the Jasad, from those who defend the salafi methodology, as well as those who defend the methods by which the Qur'an is studied in the Dar al-Ulum... In recent times things have become very confusing and we have begun to see in book stores and on websites speculation about future events, based on verses and hadeeths which refer to these future events concerning the signs of the Hour. This unique book presents the answers to all the important questions in reference to the Quran and the Sunnah. You will read very interesting discussions about the signs of the Hour like : Dajjal (False Messiah), the Descent of Eesa (Jesus), the Emergence of Yajooj and Majooj, Three Landslides, The Smoke, The Beast, The Rising of the Sun from its place of setting etc. This is a wonderful book. It clears the doubts and misunderstandings about the Signs of the Hour and we see the true picture of the issues in the light of the Quran and the Sunnah. This book will change the way on how to look at this life. You will read it twice or thrice as the information given was never discussed in such detail and splendid way. Excellent information and not merely based on theory but all of it comprises of Hadiths and Quranic Ayahs followed by explanation for layman readers. It is the best book to refer others to read.

This book was originally written by Ibn Kathir over 1300 years ago in many languages. Many writers copied his writing. All of Ibn Kathir's books can be found in Mecca's Library. He has written over 60,000 pages and he was blind. Amazing! In recent times things have become very confusing and we have begun to see in book stores and on websites speculations about future events. Sometimes you hear about the appearance of the false Messiah, sometimes you hear that the final battle between the Good and the Evil is close at hand, other time you hear something happening in the East or in the West. So, learn about the Final hour and its signs by reading this book which is backed by proofs from the Quran, Bible, and the Torah.

I have followed with indescribable pain the cowardly American terrorist attacks on those Muslims of Afghanistan who took a stand for Islam and who were entirely innocent of the September 11th terrorist attack on America. America has consistently followed the same policy of ruthless merciless oppression from the time of the extermination of the indigenous American-Indian peoples and the enslavement of the African people in the Americas to the absolutely shameless support for the relentless oppression of the State of Israel in the Holy Land. Only those who are completely blind and totally corrupted in respect of their capacity for understanding can fail to see the above. It was cowardly because the godless enemy is too terrified to ever fight a Muslim on a level battleground. That enemy fights his cowardly battles from the safety of fighter aircrafts, helicopter gun ships, massive bombs, guided missiles, etc., far up in the sky. But Allah Most High will surely bring us that day, Insha Allah, when we will be able to face the enemy on the ground on a level battleground. Amin! Until that day comes we must continue our struggle to defend ourselves and to resist oppression while showing utmost patience and while holding on to faith. The struggle must continue regardless of the price we have to pay.

This project combines the work from multiple scholars of Islam who have translated, rather, interpreted the Holy Qur'an, from the original Arabic language into English language. Primarily this project utilizes the interpretation of Muhammad Taqi-ud-Din al-Hilali & Muhammad Muhsin Khan and adds to, and combines the notes, explanations and commentary from the works of Saheeh International and from Dr. Mustafa Khattab; the Clear Quran. Additionally, this project uses references from Tafsir Ibn Kathir, Tafsir Al-Qurtubi, and Tafsir Al-Tabari.

Together with hundreds of references from the life and teachings of the prophet Muhammed that are collected in a hadith from Sahih al-Bukhari and Sahih Muslim, this project aims to be the best-improved modern day interpretation of the Arabic Qur'an for the student of Islam, and the student of Qur'an and the Hadith of the prophet. In this work you will find multiple notes and explanations about the text of the Qur'an that will help you better comprehend the context and the meaning of the text. With the help of the Hadith, you will also be able to read and learn how the prophet Muhammad used, or benefited, or instructed his followers according to the commands which were revealed in the Qur'an. I have also included, for those that like to compare and contrast, look up references from the Old Testament (Hebrew Bible) and from the New Testament (Christian Bible) at the locations throughout the book where the revelation talks about a similar event that can be found in the previous Scriptures. This project is divided in 30 parts, like the 30 days of the Lunar month, in the Islamic calendar for those that would like to complete the reading of the Qur'an in one Lunar month. (not recommended to beginners or students of Islam) This division is based from a lecture of Sheikh Imran Hosein, an expert in Islamic eschatology, and an author of multiple books on Islam. This project uses modern day English language to interpret the text of the Qur'an, every effort was made to remove the 'old' or Shakespearian English. This product will deliver a detailed study of the interpreted revelation that the reader would be able to read easily and gain knowledge of the final scripture and guidance to the humankind from their Creator, Allah.

of lust to rule over others. History is ending with that new actor on the stage of the world displaying an unprecedented imperial lust to rule the world. That new actor possesses power unprecedented in human history and has already used that power through Gog and Magog to spread himself out in all directions as he took control of the world. He then proceeded to liberate the Holy Land for the Jews, to bring them back to the Holy Land to reclaim it as their own two thousand years after they had been expelled from it by Divine decree, and to restore in the Holy Land a State of Israel. That mysterious new actor is now preparing the way for Israel's Pax Judaica to replace USA's Pax Americana. This pioneering book on Islamic Eschatology has identified that strange and mysterious new actor who occupies center-stage in the world in the End-time, and who brought modern western civilization into being, as Dajjäl the false Messiah.

This boy will die in eight hours. That's not soon enough for his enemies. Jamie Sheridan, a 17-year-old trapped in a dead-end town, is suffocating. Grief over his parents' demise and his brother's descent into the bottle leads Jamie to seek a way out. Yet the night he tries to escape, the final countdown on his life begins. In a matter of minutes, one of his mentors is killed, and people he trusted - neighbors, peers, even his English teacher - are coming after him, heavily armed. Jamie flees into the night, desperate and seeking hope from the two friends he believes he can count on - Samantha and Michael. Yet both of them may become targets as well, for the stakes are too high, the clock ticking too fast. Jamie will soon learn the devastating truth about secrets born in another universe, and a monstrous, genetic seed that will arrive upon his death, shaping the fate of two universes. So the chase is on - eight hours to avoid assassins or live in the safety of those who wish to him to play out his destiny. Either way, he's dead. The chase to an impossible future begins now ...

'Dreams in Islam' is a subject which is located in knowledge internally received, and its supreme importance for the believer continually increases as the world grows in godlessness and as the historical process draws to a close. The Prophet (sallallahu 'alaihi wa sallam) said: "When the time (of the end of the world) draws close, the dreams of a believer will hardly fail to come true, and a dream of a believer is one of the forty-six parts of prophethood."

One of the signs of the last age, i.e., before the end of the world, is the absence of knowledge (of Truth and, therefore of Islam). Our widespread ignorance of the subject of 'Dreams' and the important place which 'Dreams' occupy in Islam, as well as the widespread ignorance of the subject of the Prohibition of Riba in Islam, is yet another indication that the last age has-arrived! The Sufi epistemology recognizes that knowledge comes from two sources- the first is knowledge that is externally acquired, and the other is knowledge that is internally received.

The Sufi epistemology, which was taught by our great teacher, Maulana Dr. Muhammad Fadlur Rahman Ansari (rahimahullah), at the Aleemiyah Institute of Islamic Studies in Karachi, Pakistan, is the epistemology of knowledge internally received, and we hasten to inform the gentle reader that this book is based on that epistemology.

in this brilliant portrait of Islam today-- and tomorrow-- he draws on a lifetime of thought and research to provide an accurate, richly nuanced, and revelatory account of the fastest growing religion in the world. Here Esposito explores the major questions and issues that face Islam in the 21st century and that will deeply affect global politics: Is Islam compatible with modern notions of democracy, rule of law, gender equality, and human rights? How representative and widespread is Islamic fundamentalism and the threat of global terrorism? Can Muslim minority communities be loyal citizens in America and Europe? In the midst of these questions Esposito places an important emphasis on the issue of Islamophobia, the threat it poses, and its vast impact on politics and society in the US and Europe. He also turns the mirror on the US and Europe and paints a revealing portrait of how we appear to Muslims. Recent decades have brought extraordinary changes in the Muslim world, and in addressing these issues, Esposito paints a complex picture of Islam in all its diversity--a picture of urgent importance as we face the challenges of the coming century.

This is a third publication in the Ansari Memorial Series, published in honor of my teacher and Shaikh of blessed memory, Maulana Dr. Muhammad Fadlur Rahman Ansari (1914 - 1974). The previous two publications were entitled: 'The Religion of Abraham and the State of Israel - A View from the Qur'an', and 'The Importance of the Prohibition of Riba in Islam'. Much of the research work for this book was done during the years 1975-1979 at the United Nations Library in the Palais des Nations, Geneva, while I was a doctoral student in International Relations at the Graduate Institute of International Studies, Geneva. We are experiencing, at the time of writing a rapidly deteriorating situation in today's Muslim World with bloody conflicts inflicting unimaginable suffering on innocent Muslims in Bosnia, Kashmir, Algeria, Palestine, Chechnya etc. Yesterday it was fifty thousand Muslim women raped in Bosnia, and today's horror stories are about a son who was forced to bite off his Muslim father's testicles in Bosnia, and the innocent blind Muslim Shaikh, Omar Abdul Rahman, who was condemned to life imprisonment in USA (because he posed too great a threat to the pro-west secular regime which rules Egypt), and who is sexually humiliated by prison guards whenever he has a visitor at prison. I am now convinced that the time has at last come for this work to reach the Muslim public who may now be sufficiently shaken up to look seriously for the causes of our impotence. They may, as a consequence, take this work seriously and brush off the expected protests from establishment scholars, and the governments that they support, around the Muslim world!

In this book, Nicolas Laos studies the meaning of the terms "world" and "order," the moral dimensions of each world order model, and wider issues of meaning and interpretation generated by humanity's attempt to live in a meaningful world and to find the logos of the beings and things in the world. The aim of this book is to propose a unified theory of world order (i.e., a theory that combines philosophy, theology, and political theory). In this context, the author provides a thought-provoking (re)interpretation of classical philosophy (placing particular emphasis on Platonism), an in-depth inquiry into medieval philosophy and spirituality (placing particular emphasis on the cultural differences between the Greek East and the Latino-Frankish West), and an intellectually challenging review and evaluation of modern Western philosophy (including Descartes, Spinoza, Leibniz, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, Rousseau, Kant, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Husserl, and Heidegger) and of Nietzsche's and the postmodernists' revolt against modernity. He then elucidates the philosophical foundations and "pedigree" of each of the three basic political theories of modernity (i.e., Liberalism, Communism, and Fascism), and he studies the basic theoretical debates in International Relations, Geopolitics, and Noopolitics. Finally, Laos proposes a new, "fourth," political theory which he calls "metaphysical republicanism."
