 Break the cycles of sin and defeat in your family bloodline. And become the one who pioneers a new legacy of blessing and breakthrough! There is much talk and teaching about generational curses and how they can be spiritually transmitted through the family bloodline. But what about generational blessings? The same Scriptures that speak of curses that need to be revoked also point to multi-generational blessings that can transform our lives today and impact our children and grandchildren. What you do today in the Courts of Heaven can release generational blessings for you and your family! Robert Henderson is a recognized apostolic leader in the church and the bestselling author of the Courts of Heaven series. He has given his life to helping individuals, churches, and nations break legal agreements with the enemy by operating in the Courts of Heaven to step into the breakthroughs that Scripture promises. But now, writing alongside his son, Adam, a powerful new revelation is being released. It was his experience praying for breakthrough over Adam that taught Robert Henderson about both breaking curses and releasing generational blessings from the Courts of Heaven. You will learn how to: Experience family freedom by bringing your loved ones before Heaven's Courts and interceding for verdicts of blessing, freedom, and salvation. Pray according to what's written in the books of Heaven for you and your family. Approach the Courts of Heaven for generational blessing using a 5-Step Prayer

Model observed in the life of David. Retrieve lost and stolen wealth from past generations. See prodigals reclaimed and restored to God as you pray Courtroom prayers on their behalf. It's one thing to cancel the enemy's assignment for our life by dealing with bloodline issues and curses; it's another dimension to proactively and powerfully enter the Courts of Heaven, partner with the purposes of God, and secure blessing today and in generations to come.

For most Christians the Courts of Heaven are still an unfamiliar concept. This is changing rapidly. More and more believers are experiencing praying from a courtroom perspective - a practice that is finally ending the injustice being inflicted on them and the world around them. In the first part of this book, Ronald explains the biblical foundation for the existence of the Courts of Heaven and our mandate to pray from this place. Subjects such as the 'Power of the Covenant' and 'Why we need God as our Judge' are extensively dealt with. He also explains in which court we should present our case and with what attitude we should enter this court. Part two is the practical application. The reader is assisted with the preparation of their court case. Subjects covered include 'Establishing the Matter of Guilt', 'Preparing the Plea', 'Presenting the Case to the Heavenly Judge' and 'Executing the Judgement' - all with written example prayers. The Courts of Heaven is a revelation from God, hidden for centuries. Since the victory of Christ on the cross, believers are able to condemn every voice which speaks against them. This book is a powerful, easy to follow tool on how to participate in the Courts of Heaven. Now we are finally able to lead the victorious life God has prepared for us The Cruel Prince Destiny

How the attorney-client relationship favors the privileged in criminal court—and denies justice to the poor and to working-class people of color The number of Americans arrested, brought to court, and incarcerated has skyrocketed in recent decades. Criminal defendants come from all races and economic walks of life, but they experience punishment in vastly different ways. Privilege and Punishment examines how racial and class inequalities are embedded in the attorney-client relationship, providing a devastating portrait of inequality and injustice within and beyond the criminal courts. Matthew Clair conducted extensive fieldwork in the Boston court system, attending criminal hearings and interviewing defendants, lawyers, judges, police officers, and probation officers. In this eye-opening book, he uncovers how privilege and inequality play out in criminal court interactions. When disadvantaged defendants try to learn their legal rights and advocate for themselves, lawyers and judges often silence, coerce, and punish them. Privileged defendants, who are more likely to trust their defense attorneys, delegate authority to their lawyers, defer to judges, and are rewarded for their compliance. Clair shows how attempts to exercise legal rights often backfire on the poor and on working-class people of color, and how effective legal representation alone is no guarantee of justice. Superbly written and powerfully argued, Privilege and Punishment draws needed attention to the injustices that are perpetuated by the attorney-client relationship in today's criminal courts, and describes the reforms needed to correct them. Receiving Generational Blessings from the Courts of Heaven Charisma Media What To Do When Prayers for Healing Go Unanswered The Bible is clear: Gods will is to heal! And yet, believers often pray for healing and do not receive it. Why? The answer can be found in the Courts of Heaven. Robert Henderson is internationally recognized for teaching the Courts of Heaven prayer strategy, which has brought breakthrough, answered prayers, and miraculous transformation to countless lives. Now, Henderson presents a powerful new teaching that answers the question: What can I do if my prayers for healing go unanswered? Satan is the adversary to Gods will and Gods people. In the Courtrooms of Heaven, he brings charges against believers to prevent their healing. In this book, Henderson teaches you to align your prayers with the legal process of Heaven to defeat the devils arguments. You will learn how to: Identify hindering spirits, barriers, and legal rights that prevent healing. Break curses and strongholds that give satan destructive access to your health. Pray in a breakthrough dimension according to Gods purposes. Release the healing verdict of atonement from the Courts of Heaven. Discover how to legally unlock divine destiny over your life, and even your nation. Bring your appeals before the Courtroom of Heaven!

Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 The place of the initial conflict is in a courtroom, not on a battlefield. Christians should first win their verdicts in the courtroom of Heaven before going out to win on the battlefield. #2 The first thing we must see is that Heaven is open. This means that there is revelation and things we need to discern in the Heavenly realm. Prayer and warfare should not be a shot in the dark. We should be able to pinpoint the things that need to be dealt with and touch them with accuracy. #3 When we pray, we are entering a courtroom. If the widow in Jesus' parable could get an answer and a verdict from an unjust judge through her persistent activity in a court, how much more can we gain answers as the elect of God before the Righteous Judge of all. #4 The widow in the parable of the courtroom was praying for a verdict from the court, not from the battlefield. She realized that she didn't need to march onto a battlefield and yell at her adversary. She just needed a verdict from the court.

In an ideal world, the laws of Congress--known as federal statutes--would always be clearly worded and easily understood by the judges tasked with interpreting them. But many laws feature ambiguous or even contradictory wording. How, then, should judges divine their meaning? Should they stick only to the text? To what degree, if any, should they consult aids beyond the statutes themselves? Are the purposes of lawmakers in writing law relevant? Some judges, such as Supreme Court Justice Antonin Scalia, believe courts should look to the language of the statute and virtually nothing else. Chief Judge Robert A. Katzmann of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit respectfully disagrees. In Judging Statutes, Katzmann, who is a trained political scientist as well as a judge, argues that our constitutional system charges Congress with enacting laws; therefore, how Congress makes its purposes known through both the laws themselves and reliable accompanying materials should be respected. He looks at how the American government works, including how laws come to be and how various agencies construe legislation. He then explains the judicial process of interpreting and applying these laws through the demonstration of two interpretative approaches, purposivism (focusing on the purpose of a law) and textualism (focusing solely on the text of the written law). Katzmann draws from his experience to show how this process plays out in the real world, and concludes with some suggestions to promote understanding between the courts and Congress. When courts interpret the laws of Congress, they should be mindful of how Congress actually functions, how lawmakers signal the meaning of statutes, and what those legislators expect of courts construing their laws. The legislative record behind a law is in truth part of its foundation, and therefore merits consideration.

In the last few years, an increasing number of Christians are appearing in the courts of heaven to answer accusations that were brought against them by an adversary. As a result, illnesses have vanished, legal proceedings have been halted and demonic attacks suddenly stopped. Do we write these things off as coincidence? Or is there power in the verdicts that come from the court of heaven? Many Christians are surprised when they first hear that the courts of heaven are real. Many more have been shocked at how their lives have changed after appearing in court to face their adversary. The courts are places where the legal proceedings of heaven are carried out. Cases are brought before a judge, witnesses testify and rulings are handed down. In an earthly court, when an accusation is brought against you and it goes unanswered, even if you're innocent, it can cause legal problems. Whenever your're accused, you must appear to answer the accusation. Otherwise the court must find you guilty. Many of us are being accused right now by an adversary and aren't aware of it. When the accusation goes unanswered, our adversary wins by default and is able to afflict or oppress us. Isn't it time you learned how to present your case in the court of heaven? With the same down-to-earth teaching style used in Divine Healing Made Simple, Praying Medic clearly explains what the courts of heaven are and why we may want to appear in them. Even the least experienced believer will be able to boldly go before the court of heaven and obtain victory after they read the Bible-based teaching, and testimonies provided in this book. Defeating Your Adversary in the Court of Heaven answers the most common questions people have about the courts of heaven. It explains why, when and how we can appear there and how to obtain victory over our accuser. There's even a simple, step-by-step protocol that shows you exactly what to say, when
