Dillon Gaynor was a bad boy, the epitome of a teenage girl's shy dream. In the case of seventeen-year-old Jamie Kincaid, the dream ended in a nightmare at someone else's hands, but she'd never gotten over Dillon. Twelve years later, he was back in her life, as arrogant and sexy as he'd been so long ago. But Jaimie has been hurt too badly, and he scares her on every level. She just wants to get away from the only man she ever loved. Too bad Dillon isn't taking no for an answer. Trigger Warning: there's rape in this book (not by the hero) and there are issues of questionable consent. In my mind, the consent is there. Other people's mileage may vary.
