The Scoobs in Scoobtown are very unique, they float when they want to, float up and float down. They can change their color to green with red stripes. They live in a land that is not far from heaven and were made to serve God and make Jesus their Lord. God created them to have heaven on earth and sent Jesus His son to show them their worth. But you'll see when you read that some were determined to do things their own way, not God's way! Though Scoobtown is millions of miles away, in your imagination, there is a Scoob in you and a Scoob in me. So be an obedient Scoob 1,2,3!! (2 John:6) And this is Love: that we walk in obedience to His commands. As you have heard from the beginning, His command is that you walk in love.

A new collection that captures the austere serenity of the Southwest American desert. Award-winning, Paris-based poet Alice Notley's adventurous new book is inspired by the life of Marie, a woman who resided in the dump outside Notley's hometown in the Southwestern desert of America. In this poetical fantasy, Marie becomes the ultimate artist/poet, composing a codex-calligraphy, writings, paintings, collage-from materials left at the dump. She is a "culture of one." The story is told in long-lined, clear-edged poems deliberately stacked so the reader can keep plunging headlong into the events of the book. Culture of One offers further proof of how Notley "has freed herself from any single notion of what poetry should be so that she can go ahead and write what poetry can be" (The Boston Review).
