Have you been: - Deceived by a lie from Satan like Adam and Eve? - In denial like David during his affair with Bathsheba? - In a pig pen like the lost son? - Letting fear dictate your actions like the children of Israel when they arrived at the Promised Land? - Sinking in a storm like Peter when he tried to walk on water? - Or having an even deeper experience like Jonah after he tried to run away from God? Walk in the shoes of these biblical characters and many, many more. ----- This workbook does more than tell readers about the biblical basis of the steps to recovery. It involves readers in a study that takes them throughout the Bible while they put the 12 steps to work in their lives. It is an invaluable guide to Christian recovery. The premise of this workbook is that the 12 steps used by recovery groups take people from the slavery of addiction to the freedom of a God-centered life thr

It's been said that Centering Prayer is like two friends sitting together in silence, just being in each other's presence—completely natural and comfortable. Yet, Centering Prayer is sometimes viewed as too mysterious, too escapist, too hard. At first, it even appeared that way to the author, but events in his life and his further studies about prayer changed his views. Through Muyskens' insightful guidance, you'll explore a method of prayer that goes deeper than verbal conversations with God. This book teaches: silent communion with God a method of being open to the gift of God's presence a way of receiving a deep ad intimate relationship with God Each day's reading has a focal scripture verse and the author's reflection, ending with simple suggestions for contemplative prayer. You'll begin with as few as 5 minutes of Centering Prayer. By following the guidance in this book for 40 days, you will be led to a closer relationship with God. As you progress through the daily scripture and meditative readings in Forty Days to a Closer Walk with God, you'll find greater understanding and fresh awareness of Jesus' promise, "I am with you always."

I was raised in a German Roman Catholic family. Many hardships resulted from alcoholism, poverty and loss of three children at a young age. She was married at 17 and her children experienced child abuse at the hand of their father with a dismal outlook in breaking free. Through the grace of God, she was able to escape this daily abuse and she became a single parent of five children at the age of 32 with no child support and no finances. Having a love for Jesus caused her to use her faith in many traumatic times. She leaned on the LORD as she overcame one trial after another. When she was 44 years old, she answered the call to follow the LORD. She was then able to overcome obstacles with a new energy and strength. Working on the Standing Rock Indian Reservation was a huge blessing to the Lakota Sioux Indians in introducing them to training and in obtaining employment. Many anointed experiences occurred while ministering with her late husband to the Native American people throughout Canada and the U.S. She moved to Canada with her husband, leaving her job for the State of North Dakota where she worked for 16 years. She left all behind her to travel to new territory and into a new culture, going forward to minister full time for the LORD. She traveled to North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, New Mexico, and provinces in Canada such as Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and British Columbia with her late husband teaching the people the love of God and deliverance from bondages and unforgiveness. Since her husband passed away, she now touches many lives as she ministers and she continues to work full time as a job counselor in Minnesota, being a blessing to many.

Blessed with one of the great tenor voices of all time, Mario Lanza (1921-1959) rose to spectacular heights in a film, recording, and concert career that spanned little more than a decade. Groomed at the outset for a career on the opera stage, Lanza instead flourished in Hollywood where his films, most notably The Great Caruso, broke box-office records the world over and influenced the careers of countless musicians. To this day, the Three Tenors cite him as an inspiration for their own careers on the classical stage. Lanza's recordings for RCA sold in the millions, and he remains the crossover artist supreme. But his tremendous success was derailed by his self-destructive lifestyle, and by age thirty-eight he was dead, with his extraordinary promise left unfulfilled. Newly revised and updated for its first U.S. edition, Mario Lanza: Singing to the Gods is the definitive account of the remarkable life and times of one of the twentieth century's most beloved singing stars. This richly detailed work also contains a selection of rare photographs, several of which are drawn from Lanza's estate. With the support of Lanza's daughter, Ellisa Lanza Bregman, the tenor's colleagues, and his closest friend, Terry Robinson, Derek Mannering has chronicled a fascinating and unforgettable life. From the fabulous successes of the early MGM years through the disastrous walkouts and cancellations that sent Lanza's career into freefall, Mannering objectively and movingly reveals the story of a great star torn apart by his own troubled psyche and undisciplined lifestyle.

While many books provide great insight and motivation, this book goes a step further and displays the powerful supernatural work of God. Over and over the Lord brought scriptures alive in Howard and Betty's life and directed their steps. Their pain and joy is evident as they make tough decisions - many times a miracle was necessary for survival. God proved Himself to be faithful to them and as a result, they became risk takers. They truly believed that they could do anything God told them to do! Learning to walk in the supernatural is a desire on the hearts of many believers today. This book allows us to journey with Howard and Betty across the nation and around the globe as they experience the mighty hand of the Lord. Their stories clearly demonstrate what a supernatural life of faith is all about and how to activate it! Secrets to Our Supernatural Walk with God Baskerville Publishers, Inc.

Do you long to be closer to God but find that life too often gets in the way? Do you begin and end your day wondering if God still hears your prayer for peace of mind, for mending a relationship, for protection of your family, for that new special person to come into your life, for that job you've been hoping for, for emotional, physical, mental, and spiritual healing or for a closer relationship with Him? God's perfect plan for my life is Too magnificent for me to realize. I must walk one step at a time, Looking ahead to grasp His mercy Would be too wondrous For this earthly temple to unfold. God spoke the universe into existence. Because His words are the same as He is, we know He is near and need not fear, only believe. Within an inspirational collection, Treva Scott Thompson shares gospel in poetic form with the hope of lifting the minds and spirits of believers as God's words become life-giving truth. Her poems encourage us to embrace the power of His word and allow his wisdom and grace to flow through our hearts and minds as we receive understanding of His teachings. Thompson's reflections are a testament to the faith, hope, and loving guidance we gain from a close relationship with our Savior. "Rippling Streams" of Living Water is a volume of inspirational poems shared to uplift and remind believers of the power of good to overcome evil and that God always dwells within.

"This is a series of stories of what it looks like to walk with God, over the course of about a year." So begins a remarkable narrative of one man's journey learning to hear the voice of God. The details are intimate and personal. The invitation is for us all. What if we could hear from God . . . often? What difference would it make? We have a lot to sort through on any given day. A whole lot to navigate over the course of a week or a month. Am I in the right place? The right relationships? How am I going to come up with enough money to do the things I want to do? And what about love—is this the one? Will it last? What is causing all those fears I keep pushing down inside? Why can't I overcome those "habits" that look more and more like addictions? Am I at the right church? Should I even go to church? What is God doing in my life? All day long we are making choices. It adds up to an enormous amount of decisions in a lifetime. How do we know what to do? We have two options. We can trudge through on our own, doing our best to figure it all out. Or, we can walk with God. As in, learn to hear his voice. Really. We can live life with God. He offers to speak to us and guide us. Every day. It is an incredible offer. To accept that offer is to enter into an adventure filled with joy and risk, transformation and breakthrough. And more clarity than we ever thought possible.

Throughout recorded history we find that man has struggled to find a sense of lasting peace and contentment. His search has opened many varied avenues of discovery to little avail. Many approaches have held out a glowing promise of peace, false hopes and contentment only to fade in a brief span of time despite his efforts to build a stable fortress to guard against the threat of loss and vanquish this situation has prevailed throughout the centuries despite man's attempts to alter the human condition. This vexation has been made manifest physically, mentally, and spiritually.
