Casi como un título de épica galáctica emergió esta idea de hacer del “retorno del 2D” el tema del presente número de Con A de animación. La ironía es que, a pesar de que hace 22 años del estreno del primer largometraje enteramente realizado en 3D por ordenador, y del predominio de esta técnica en los que a cartelera de animación se refiere, la animación dibujada no solo no ha desaparecido sino que se ha fortalecido tanto en el ámbito comercial como en el artístico. Animación tradicional, animación vectorial, animación bajo cámara, pintura animada...El 2D es una cómoda categoría que nos permite hablar de todas estas variantes, independientemente de su origen, digital o manual, porque en plena época del apagón analógico, la animación tradicional ha encontrado su acomodo en la práctica tableta gráfica; y la animación a mano ya no se entiende sin un ordenador que permita llevar la integridad del gesto directamente a la pantalla. Con esta visión hemos dedicado la presente revista a celebrar la animación 2D en sus diferentes formatos y manifestaciones, destacando la actualidad del momento mediante reseñas, reportajes, entrevistas y textos de investigación originales e inéditos, destacando estudios como Cartoon Saloon o el nunca apagado del todo Studio Ghibli; figuras del panorama nacional como Khri Cembe, Fernando Pomares o Alessandro Novelli, pero también de la vecina Portugal (Abi Feijó y Regina Pessoa); producciones tan prometedoras como Buñuel en el laberinto de las tortugas; y finalmente series de televisión, como la paradigmática cadena Cartoon Network, que se ha ocupado de que la animación 2D esté omnipresente en nuestras vidas.

BEFORE EVER AFTER is a compilation of never-before-seen lecture notes from classes that were held in preparation for the production of Snow White. Walt knew that to fulfill his once-impossible dream of crafting a feature-length animated film, he had to establish an on-campus art school for his staff. He hand-picked Don Graham, a respected instructor from the Chouinard Art Institute, to hold classes on entertainment, drawing, and acting and was also innovative enough to document the thought process behind the nascent art form of feature animation. Guest lecturers included Frank Lloyd Wright who spoke about art philosophy and USC psychology professor Dr. Boris Morkovin who talked about humor. Previously unseen outside of the Disney studios, these lecture notes contain the wisdom behind the artistry that audiences generation after generation have come to appreciate in Snow White, and this wisdom also provided the artistic foundation for many films to come.

Considerada como una de las obras maestras del malogrado director Satoshi Kon, Perfect Blue es uno de los filmes sobre los que la animación comercial japonesa contemporánea ha construido su identidad como producto cultural atravesado, por un lado, por elementos propios de la ficción de explotación, y, por otro, por rasgos pertenecientes a la complejidad narrativa de la narración postclásica. La ópera prima de Kon va más allá de las superficiales representaciones del mundo de las ídols japonesas y explora los elementos más sombríos del entretenimiento mediático que las sustenta: la inmoralidad de sus agencias de representación, lo deshonesto de los productores televisivos, el potencial obsesivo de los otaku y, sobre todo, de las secuelas psicológicas a las que están sometidas las ídols.

A diferencia de la historia de la animación, que mira al pasado, la teoría de la animación es capaz de abordar expectativas de futuro, proponer hipótesis y dibujar escenarios posibles a partir de los síntomas del presente. Con todo, cualquier recapitulación es difícil, puesto que la animación, un arte de base tecnológica, se desenvuelve en un contexto en permanente cambio, lo que supone un reto añadido a la teoría de la animación como disciplina de conocimiento. El presente número de Con A de animación arranca con la Firma Invitada de Jorgelina Orfila y Francisco Ortega-Grimaldo, de la Texas Tech University: “Siento luego existo: animación stop-motion en el contexto de la ética del cuidado”, donde exponen los principios con los que imparten talleres de animación destinados a grupos en situación de vulnerabilidad. Entre los contenidos de Investigación figuran: “Hacia una fenomenología de la animación para la investigación interdisciplinaria”, de Víctor Francisco Casallo Mesías; “La plasmaticidad Eisensteiniana. ¿Pasado, presente o todo lo contrario?”, por María Pagès y Marina Rof; “Arcane: Una distopía para (re)pensar caminos hacia la revolución”, por Delicia Aguado-Peláez y Patricia Martínez-García; “Variables que intervienen en la interpretación y aceptación de elementos de la narrativa de las series anime en las campañas publicitarias en España”, de Alfonso Freire Sánchez, Jesús López-González y Sara Carrasco García; y por último, “Límites difusos y horizontes expandidos. Convergencias entre animación experimental y arte contemporáneo”, de Tania Castellano San Jacinto.
