When We Two Parted
 When We Two Parted - When we two parted. I stood in Venice, on the Bridge of Sighs, A palace and a prison on each hand: I saw from out the wave her structures rise As from the stroke of the enchanter's wand: A thousand years their cloudy wings expand Around me, and a dying Glory smiles O'er the far times, when many a subject land Looked to the wingéd Lion's marble piles, Where Venice sate in ...

When We Two Parted by Lord Byron

When we two parted
 In silence and tears,
 Half broken-hearted,
 To sever for years,
 Pale grew thy cheek and cold,
 Colder thy kiss;
 Truly that hour foretold
 Sorrow to this.
 The dew of the morning
 Sank chill on my brow—
 It felt like the warning
 Of what I feel now.
 Thy vows are all broken,
 And light's thy fame.
