It is Sartre's first novel and, in his own opinion, one of his best works. The novel takes place in 'Bouville' a town similar to Le Havre, and it concerns a dejected historian, who becomes* convinced that inanimate objects and situations encroach on his ability to define himself, on his intellectual and spiritual freedom, evoking in the protagonist a sense of nausea. French writer Simone de Beauvoir's first published novel, Nausea is both an extended essay on existentialist ideals, and a profound fictional exploration of a man struggling to restore a sense of meaning to his life. This Penguin Modern Classics edition is translated from the French by Robert Baldick with an introduction by James Wood. Nausea (Penguin Modern Classics): Amazon.co.uk: Sartre ... Nausea is a philosophical novel by the existentialist philosopher Jean-Paul Sartre, published in 1938.
